

NAVJEEVAN LAW COLLEGE, NASHIK

Best practices

1. Enrichment of teaching staff, non-teaching staff and students:

The teaching staff must update his knowledge every year to provide good academic fest to the students. The college always provides good facilities to teaching staff which includes a separate computer with internet facility. According to UGC norms they are supposed to spend at list one hour for their research activities. The teaching staff is always motivated to participate in the national and international workshops, seminar, symposium and conferences and to present and publish the papers. The updated knowledge of national and international law, judicial trends etc. by the teacher should be included by the teacher while teaching subject in a class room. Navjeevan Law College is always encouraging the faculty members to represent the law college at national and international platform. This will help the m for career advancement scheme and also to give a very specialized and updated knowledge to the students. The non-teaching staff is also motivated to participate in the various workshops organized by the Higher Education departments and private institutions. They are also asked to update their technological knowledge like Computer, Communication skill etc. Students are also motivated to participate in the various Moot Court competitions, debate competitions, elocution competitions etc. organized in the city as well as out of the city. The Students are free access of the internet facility to obtain the global knowledge in the field of law. The Expert are called upon to guide the students on the various law and non- law subjects and current topics. The Seminar and Workshops are organized for the students to get the current knowledge from the Academician, Jurists, and Lawyers etc.

2. Alumni participation:

We have very strong bonding with pass out students of Navjeevan Law College. The students are always welcome to the law college though they have passed and having employed somewhere else. Every year alumni meet is organized in the college so that the pass out students will have an interaction with the students pursuing their law course from the Navjeevan Law College. The alumni of Navjeevan Law College are working in the prominent sectors like judiciary, Government sector, Semi- Government sector, prosecutor, legal managers, advocates etc. The alumni's are always in touch with the college and help the students for the expert knowledge and while obtaining a career after completing his law course. Alumni are the asset of the institution. Strong and good relations are always maintained by the college with the alumni for sharing their views for the betterment and enhancement of the legal education imparted by the institution.

.

Dr.K.K.Deo
Principal
Navjeevan Law College, Nashik